

New: The GG Extra Dressage Saddle – powered by Ingrid Klimke

One of the most popular dressage saddles worldwide, the GG Extra, is now available in a new version. Its name: GG Extra Dressage Saddle powered by Ingrid Klimke. The name says it all. This masterpiece from the hands of our master saddlers was developed in cooperation with master rider and Passier partner Ingrid Klimke and it comes with multiple features!

New look: The new, modern look turns this popular model into a new highlight. The design inset with alternative stirrup strap lead makes this saddle a true eye-catcher.

Direct contact: The comfortable deep seat, the anatomical thigh supports and the soft knee inserts with the convenient quilting enable direct contact with the horse.

Naturally horse-friendly: The freedom panels ensure an optimum fit to the horse's back.
